> RE: United States v. William Morrill Gilday, Jr. V Cr. No. 70-363-M

Dear Mr. Bates:

Enclosed please find a conformed copy of Dismissal of Indictment in the above-captioned case.

As you may be aware, in the trial of Susan Saxe in Suffolk Superior Court which ended in a hung jury, Judge McLaughlin suppressed evidence taken from the apartment of Katherine Power at 163 Beacon St. on the ground of material and reckless misrepresentations of facts in the affidavit for search warrant obtained by local police officers. This means that the only item left in our indictment for theft was the illegal transportation of the 1966 Dodge 200 Pickup Truck from the Armory to Salisbury, Mass. where it was recovered. In light of Mr. Gilday's two concurrent life sentences, and his request to be tried on the indictment, we have dismissed for the reason that further prosecution was not justified.

Sincerely,

EDWARD F. HARRINGTON United States Attgrney

This is to advise that the Boston office telephonically advised that Susan Edith Saxe on this date pled guilty in local court in Boston to two charges of armed robbery and one charge of murder - manslaughter. U

By the way of background, Saxe and Katherine Ann Power, who remains a Top Ten Fugitive, were placed on the FBI's Ten Most Wanted Fugitives list following a crime spree in the fall of 1970, which involved bank robberies and theft of Government property. Saxe was arrested in Philadelphia, Pa., on 3/27/75 and subsequently pled guilty to a bank robbery in that city. Saxe's guilty plea in Boston involved a bank robbery during which a Boston police officer was brutally slain. All of her confederates, with the exception of Power, have previously been apprehended.

The Boston office notes that this matter is receiving considerable publicity. In this connection, of the External Affairs Division has been advised. D
